There were so many complainants that the Judge did not know whom to select. Finally Mrs. Catherine Bianchard, of 61 South Washington square, took the witness stand and told her story, which was similar in general to all the others. To some of the complainants he said he was instructor in a riding school, and offered to leave his spurs as security. He was so plausible, however, that they did not want any security but his word. He insited, however, on leaving his satchel and the watch. In no case did he return, and inquiry at the express office showed that he had no trunks nor plano there.

MANCHESTER, Iowa, June 26 .- Smith MANCHESTER, lowe, June 26.—Smith arrived here at 3 A. M., Jones at 4 A. M., Middleton at 1.28 P. M., and Albright at 1.30 yesterday. Smith and his two horses are in fair condition; Jones and his horse are in fair condition; Jones and his horse looked better than any other, though Middleton's horse was in fine condition.

Albright had two horses, in good shape, but there is a rumor in town that he steamer buriling denied this morning.

Abright had two horses, in good shape, but there is a rumor in town that he stole a march in the race by shipping his horse in an lilinois Central box-car from here to Peoria, a small station west of Dubuque.

The proprietor of the stable where Albright stopped says that Albright started on his way towards Dubuque, but after going about a mile and a haif he turned into a side street and went back to the Illinois Central stock-yards.

This much is verified by Mr. Hennessy, of this city, who acted as guide in making the trip. The Illinois Central agent says that a man calling himself Joe Johnson shipped two horses from here to Peoria on the second section of No. 52 ktrs, which left here at 4 A. M.

FRIDAY ELLISON'S UNLUCKY DAY. At His Request Thursday Fixed for

His Examination. The examination of Frank Ellison, in the Jefferson Market Court, for brutally assaulting Broker William H. Henriques three weeks ago, was adjourned this morning until 9.30 o'clock next Thursday morning.

The adjournment was granted at the request of Lawyer Brooke, with the consent of the District-Attorney. Mr. Brooke's colored messenger boy was the only representative of the lawyers of either side in court. At first Justice Voorhis intended making the adjournment until next Friday.

"Don't make it for that day," exclaimed Ellison: "that's been an unlucky day for me all my life. Make it any other day. The dread of Friday is my one superstition."

Justice Voorhis ordered that a report be made to the Court every forty-eight hours, showing the condition of Henriques, whom the doctors are still unwilling to declare out of danger.

Ellison was led back to his cell.

The condition of Broker Henriques this morning was little different from what it has been for the last few days. He is very low, but it was said this morning that he is in no immediate danger.

The horse began kicking and struck Burney in the face, knocking his right cye from its socket and inflicting several deep gashes in his face and head. The horse threw the buggy against a hydrant, knocking Burney out and breaking his arm, smashing the buggy in pleces. The horse ran away.

Burney was picked up unconscious and conveyed to the Atlantic Hotel, where Dr. John P. Pemberton dressed his wounds, after which he was taken to the Avenel Hotel.

Mr. Burney just opered the Avenel. He is well known in Washington, D. C., where he was in charge of a hotel last Winter.

POLICE SUPERINTENDENT'S SPREE

Camden Chief Said to Be Fighting Drunk at Atlantic City.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 25.—A man said to be James A. Smith, Superlated and to the Camden Police, yesterday visited Atlantic City and drank freely. While in a fighting mood he assaulted a man and was taken to Police Headquarters.

Would give no explanation for their strange action.

After their removal it was recalled that old Mrs. Goble, Jonathan's mother, who died in the house several years ago, was once the victim of a peculiar robbery. She said she had a number of gold in the house and she had a number of gold ons in her pocketbook, and during the night some thief got in the house and she had a number of gold in the house were illuminated. The next morning there were no signs of footmarks in the snow, and the doors were tightly locked.

Some weeks later a light, said to be of electrical brilliancy, was seen moving about the garden. It vanished and reappeared in various parts of the grounds.

As the sergeant was entering his name on the blotter Smith attacked James H. Fielden, who claims to be the light-weight puglist of England, who happened to be in Police Headquarters at the time.

Smith would probably have received a severe thrashing had not some policemen interfered and locked him up. This morning he had sobered up, and his friends came to his rescue and secured his release.

SAVED FROM A BLACKSNAKE

Miss Chapman Killed the Reptile and Rescued a Child.

HACKENSACK, N. J., June 26.—Miss Maggie Chapman, a pretty girl of about soventeen, is looked upon as a genuine heroine to-day, having killed a large blacksnake, which was about to attack Florence, the three-year-old child of Stephen Christie, of Union street. The snake came up from a nearby ditch last night with an eci in its mouth.

Mrs. Campbell saw it creeping in the potato patch, and threw bricks at it. The reptile was then within three feet of the infant, its body erect, and was about to spring, when Maggie leaped over a four-foot fence and killed it with a huge pole.

The snake was fully three feet and a half in length.
